President's Message

Welcome to Pumifest! I want to wish you good luck with your dog and to remember – win, lose, or make a fool of yourself (trust me I have done it) you are here to have fun with your dog. Everyday spent “playing” with your dog is a GREAT DAY!

It is ten years since we “joined the club” with full recognition in the AKC herding group. We have had some great high points and some struggles but we have grown stronger and done it together. Even though the AKC considers us a low entry breed (we have a lot of company in this category – over 100 breeds are considered low entry), we have great accomplishments in many venues and activities. At the 2025 AKC National Championships in Orlando, Pumik had a strong confirmation entry, won the 16” agility, had a top ten Rally competitor and finished as the number one herding dog in obedience. A FABULOUS outing.

Take time to get to know new friends at Pumifest and reconnect with old ones. At times we lose sight of why we do this – in my case it is for the friendship and the love of my dogs.

I also can't stress enough that it takes a village, a very large village, to put on Pumifest and the other events that HPCA holds or sponsors around the country. Please thank all the Pumifest volunteers, committee chairs and other volunteers. We always have something looking for a volunteer and sometimes it is as small as making a few phone calls.

Good Luck, Have Fun!

*Nancy Nelson
HPCA President*

Pumifest 2026 is Dedicated to Bruce C. Coffman

7/15/1946 – 7/22/2026

By Tom Dobbs

Throughout my dog show career I have met many people, some were acquaintances and others became real true friends. Bruce Coffman was the latter! My AKC career in boxers was becoming limited due to my increasing age and I found myself looking for a new breed a little smaller and less boisterous. I began to notice the Pumik that Bruce and Sandra were showing. We became friends and I waited two years until they had a litter. I took a brother and sister. They became GChB Far East Great Expectations Lazlow and GCh Far East Great Expectations Kislayny.

Bruce was my mentor and trouble shooter. Although I knew Boxers, I was not prepared for Pumik! Bruce showed me how to groom and care for their coats and prepare them for show and gave me pointers for gaiting. We had some fine times in the ring! After Lazlow's first time winning his first points, I think he was more proud than I was.

A few years later we decided to each get a dog from Diane Fletcher who had a litter in Florida. As the time came to pick them up, hurricane Elsa was approaching the Florida coast so we left early one morning and drove all night. We picked up our pups and headed back home as the outer bands of Elsa were coming ashore. Along the way he told me stories of family, grandkids and also of previous dogs he had owned and trained and how beautiful it was to watch the Afghans in the distance while he was in Afghanistan.

He was an extraordinary person full of life and interested in everything. He loved his country, his family and his canine companions. He enjoyed helping others and was a man of honor, character and humility. I am proud to have known him and will miss his expertise and dry humor very much.

Rest well my friend.

Pumik Qualifying for a CHIC Number

The Hungarian Pumi Club of America is proud of the 116 Pumik who have completed all their recommended health tests. In order to qualify for a CHIC number, the 4 HPCA required health tests (Hip Dysplasia, Patellar Luxation, Primary Lens Luxation, and Degenerative Myelopathy) must be completed with results released into the public domain. The dog must also have a permanent identification, such as a tattoo or microchip. See the current list of dogs at www.ofa.org. The CHIC number does not imply normal test results, only that all tests were performed.

AKC BREED STANDARD FOR THE PUMI

General Appearance

The Pumi is a medium-sized alert, intelligent, energetic, and agile Hungarian herding breed, originating in the seventeenth or eighteenth centuries from the ancestral Puli, and used to herd cattle, sheep, and swine. He is characterized by his square outline, curly coat, circular tail, and long head with semi-erect ears, and whimsical expression. The Pumi originated in Hungary where pastures were small and the livestock were driven to local fields for grazing. He is a versatile stock dog, equally adept at gathering, driving and keeping the stock within boundaries as directed by the shepherd, working very close to the livestock, and using his voice and quick movement to keep the stock under control.

Size, Proportion, Substance

The Pumi is square, with the height at the withers equal to the distance from prosternum to buttocks. The bone is medium and the body is dry, lithe and muscular, with an off-standing, curly coat. Size - Dogs are from 16 to 18½ inches, bitches from 15 to 17½ inches. Disqualification - Height ½ inch above or below the desired range. Weight - Ideal weight in dogs is 27 to 29 pounds and in bitches 22 to 24 pounds.

Head

Long, with the muzzle 40 to 50 percent of the length of the head. The planes are parallel with a slight stop. Expression is lively and intelligent. Eyes are medium sized, dark brown, deep set, and oval, set moderately wide apart and slightly oblique. The pigment is dark and complete with tightly-fitting eye rims. Ears are set on high, of medium size, and carried two-thirds erect with the tips pointing somewhat towards the sides. The ears are covered with hair, enhancing their whimsical expression. The ears are mobile and alert, moving quickly in reaction to any stimulation. Disqualifications - Ears prick or hanging.

Skull is long, moderate in width, with a very slight rounding at the sides and back, but flat when viewed from the side. The occiput is not apparent. Muzzle is strong, tapering to a blunt end at the nose, which is always black in all coat colors. Lips are tight and darkly pigmented, as are the gums. Jaws are strong, with a full complement of well-developed, white teeth that form a scissors bite.

Neck, Topline and Body

Neck is of medium length, slightly arched, and well-muscled. The skin at the throat is tight, dry, and without dewlap. Withers pronounced and forming the highest point of the body.

Body - The body is smooth and tight with hard, but not bulging muscles, and particularly lean. The back is short, straight, and taut. The loin is short, straight, and firmly coupled. The croup is not too long, slightly sloped, and of medium breadth. The chest is deep, fairly narrow, and extends well back to a moderate tuck-up. The ribs are slightly sprung with a deep brisket reaching to the elbows. The forechest is not pronounced. The depth of the chest is slightly less than 50 percent of the height at the withers. Tail - set high, it arches over the back forming a full circle from base to tip, sitting just on top of the topline. In repose it may hang down. Docking is not permitted nor is a naturally short tail (stump).

Forequarters

Shoulders - The shoulders are moderately angulated, with long, well-knit shoulder blades and an upper arm matching in length. The angle formed between the shoulder blade and upper arm should be 100 to 110 degrees. The elbows are tucked firmly against the brisket. The legs are long and straight, with medium bone. The pastern is very slightly sloped. The feet are tight, and round with well-knit toes - a cat foot, with well-cushioned pads. The nails are strong and preferably black or nearly black.

Hindquarters

The hindquarters are well-developed and muscular, and in balance with the forequarters having moderate angulation. The upper thigh is thick and strong, with a long, strong second thigh. The hocks are short, vertical, and parallel to each other. A vertical line can be drawn from the ischium down to the ground just in front of the rear toes when viewed from the side. Rear dewclaws, if any, may be removed. Hind feet same as the forefeet.

Coat

The coat is a combination of wavy and curly hair, forming corkscrews or curls all over the body, and is never smooth or corded. The coat consists of an even mixture of harsh hair and softer undercoat. The coat stands out from the body approximately 1½ to 3 inches and is prepared using a combination of stripping and trimming. The eyes and the foreface are free of long hair. The hair on the underside of the tail ranges from ½ inch at its shortest to 3 to 5 inches and has little undercoat. In order to achieve the characteristic corkscrews and curls in the coat, the hair is allowed to dry naturally. The coat must never appear fluffed and blown dry, obscuring the characteristic curls.

Color

Black, white, or any shades of gray. Shades of fawn from pale cream to red, with some black or gray shading desirable. The grays are born black and fade to various shades of gray. In any of the colors, an intermixture of some gray, black or white hairs is acceptable as long as the overall appearance of a solid color is maintained. A white mark on the chest less than 1 inch at the longest dimension is permissible, as are white toe tips. Skin pigmentation is dark, with the coat colors intense and solid, although there may be lighter or darker shadings on head and legs. Disqualification - Any multiple-color pattern or patches, e.g., black and tan pattern, piebald, parti-colored.

Gait

The gait is light and spirited, energetic and efficient, with moderate reach and drive, enabling them to change direction instantly. Head and tail are carried up. From the front and rear, the legs travel in a straight line in the same planes, and tend to converge toward a median line of travel as speed increases.

Temperament

Lively, alert, intelligent, bold, and ready for duty, yet reserved with strangers, the Pumi assesses each new situation.

Faults

Any deviation from the foregoing should be considered a fault, the seriousness of the fault depending upon the extent of the deviation. Additional emphasis should be given to those characteristics that distinguish the Pumi from the Puli: head, ears, tail, and coat.

Disqualifications: Height ½ inch above or below the desired range. Ears prick or hanging. Any multiple-color pattern or patches, e.g., black and tan pattern, piebald, parti-colored.
